UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
DISTRICT OF NEVADA

FOCALPOINT INTERNATIONAL, INC.,

Plaintiff,

vs.

DOM RUBINO CONSULTING SERVICES,
INC.; and BIZSTRATPLAN, INC.,

Defendants.

Case No.: 2:18-cv-00236-APG-PAL

STIPULATED CONFIDENTIALITY
AGREEMENT AND PROTECTIVE ORDER

Plaintiff, FocalPoint International, Inc. (“FocalPoint”), by and through its undersigned counsel of record, and Defendants, Dom Rubino Consulting Services, Inc. and BizStratPlan, Inc. (“Defendants”), by and through their undersigned counsel of record (collectively, the “Parties”), hereby enter into the following Stipulated Confidentiality Agreement and Protective Order (“Protective Order”).

Based upon the mutual order reflected in this stipulation, the Parties agree as follows:

1. This Protective Order shall govern all documents, materials, depositions, testimony, transcripts, responses to requests for admissions, interrogatory responses, items, and/or other information obtained or provided through discovery in this action (collectively “Information”) that

1 a Party designates as “Confidential” pursuant to the terms hereof (collectively “Confidential
2 Information”).

3 2. Any Party that produces Information in this action and has a good faith and 4 reasonable basis for claiming that such Information constitutes confidential and/or proprietary
5 information may designate such Information as Confidential Information.

6 a. For documents, materials, or other written Information, a Party shall designate 7 such Information as Confidential Information by stamping or otherwise labeling each page or item
8 containing Confidential Information as “Confidential.”

9 b. For interrogatories and written discovery, designation shall be made by 10 placing the legend “Confidential” on any page(s) of any answer deemed to contain such 11 confidential information, indicating any portion of such page which does not contain such 12 confidential information. Alternatively, answers deemed to contain confidential information may 13 be bound separately and marked with the appropriate legend.

14 c. For testimony, a Party shall designate such Information as Confidential
15 Information on the record or within 30 days after receipt of the official transcript. Until the 30-day 16 period has expired, the entire transcript shall be considered “Confidential.” Such Party shall also 17 require the court reporter to label the portion of the transcript containing the information as 18 “Confidential.”

19 d. A Party’s inadvertent or unintentional failure to designate Information as 20 Confidential Information shall not be deemed a waiver in whole or in part of that Party’s claim of 21 confidentiality, if the disclosing Party takes prompt action after discovering such omission to notify all 22 Parties in writing that such Information constitutes Confidential Information. However, the Party who 23 received that Information without knowledge of its confidential nature may not be held in violation of 24 this Order for using or disclosing that Information before notification of the inadvertent or unintentional
25 failure to designate that Information as Confidential Information.

26 3. The designation of information as Confidential Information pursuant to this 27 Protective Order shall not preclude any Party from disclosing that information to any person who,
28 in the case of a document, appears as the author or as a recipient thereof on the face of the

1 document, or from disclosing that information to any person who has been identified by the 2 designating party (“Designating Party”) as having previously been provided with, or having had 3 access to, the document or the information therein.

4 4. In the event a Designating Party elects to produce documents for inspection and the 5 receiving Party desires to inspect them before designating them for copying, the Designating Party
6 need not mark the documents in advance of any such inspection. For purposes of the inspection,
7 and any subsequent inspection of the original documents, all documents produced for inspection
8 shall be deemed to be designated as Confidential Information. Thereafter, upon selection of 9 specified documents for copying by the receiving Party, the Designating Party may make the 10 appropriate confidentiality designation at the time the copies are produced to the receiving party.

11 5. The Parties shall use information designated as Confidential solely for purposes of 12 these proceedings and not for any other purpose whatsoever, unless the Court permits such 13 additional use or disclosure upon noticed motion served on all Parties, including the Party that 14 produced the Confidential Information.

15 6. The Parties may use Confidential Information in discovery responses, motions,
16 briefs, and other pleadings, may mark Confidential Information as exhibits, and may use 17 Confidential Information in depositions and at trials in this action as appropriate.

18 7. Except as provided in paragraph 6 above, or as otherwise agreed by the producing party,
19 the Parties shall not disclose information marked as “Confidential” to anyone other than a “Qualified 20 Person.” As used in this Protective Order, the term “Qualified Person” refers to: (a) officers, directors, 21 and employees of any Party to this action who have provided their written consent to the terms of this 22 Protective Order in the form attached as Exhibit A hereto; and (i) who are actively engaged in 23 assisting counsel with the prosecution or defense of this action; or (ii) who are being advised by 24 counsel regarding these actions and the particular disclosure is reasonably necessary with regard to 25 the legal advice being rendered; (b) in-house lawyers who are engaged in preparation for trials in 26 these proceedings, including the following necessary in-house staff: lawyers, accountants, legal 27 assistants and stenographic and clerical employees assisting these persons; (c) outside counsel for a 28 Party, including employees of such counsel (including necessary legal assistants and stenographic and clerical employees actually assisting such counsel and outside vendors engaged by such counsel to scan, copy, and/or code documents), for purposes of assisting in this action; (d) expert witnesses or consultants employed by a Party or its attorneys of record for purposes of assisting in this action who have provided their written consent to the terms of this Protective Order in the form attached as Exhibit A hereto; (e) any other person whose deposition is taken in this action and their attorney; provided, however, that Confidential Information may only be shown to said deponent and their attorney to the extent Confidential Information is used as deposition exhibits and, provided, however, that the deponent is not a principal, officer, director, or employee of a competitor of one of the Parties. If a deposition is proposed to be taken of such an individual associated with a competitor and a party wishes to use Confidential Information in the deposition, the party wishing to do so shall provide notice to the opposing party at least thirty (30) days in advance in order to give the other party the opportunity to object to such a proposed use, and in the event that the Parties cannot come to an agreement on the proposed use of Confidential Information for deposition, the objecting party may seek a protective order from the Court; (f) any other person or entity as to whom counsel for the producer or provider of the Confidential Information agrees in writing, or whom the Court directs shall have access to such information; and (g) the Court and Court personnel, including without limitation, Court reporters, stenographic reporters, Court appointed Special Masters, and jurors, or alternates. This Protective Order shall not prohibit any disclosure of Confidential Information as may be required by law to persons other than Qualified Persons, but only upon order of the Court after notice to all other Parties. With respect to those individuals who are required to sign a copy of Exhibit A before receiving Confidential Information, the Parties agree that they shall mutually exchange all executed copies of Exhibit A relating to this action at the close of discovery.

8. [Intentionally omitted.]

9. Within ninety (90) days from the conclusion of these proceedings, all Confidential Information, including any copies thereof, shall either be returned to the producing Party, or be certified as having been destroyed. Subject to the terms of this Protective Order, the attorneys of record, however, are permitted to keep a file copy of Confidential Information that was submitted to the Court, included in discovery responses, or contained in deposition transcripts. Also, the

1 conclusion of these proceedings shall not relieve any person to whom Confidential Information has 2 been disclosed from the requirements of this Protective Order.

3 10. If at any time during the pendency of this action, any Party claims that another Party
4 has unreasonably designated Information as “Confidential,” the objecting Party may, after a good 5 faith attempt to resolve the dispute with such other Party, make an appropriate application to the 6 Court requesting that specifically identified Information be re-designated or excluded from the 7 provisions of this Protective Order. If the Court determines that a Party’s refusal to de-designate 8 the Information as “Confidential” was in bad faith, the Court shall award the moving Party its 9 reasonable attorney fees and costs incurred in the application proceeding. The burden of proof with 10 respect to the upholding the designation shall be on the Party designating the information as 11 “Confidential.”

12 11. Notwithstanding any other provision hereof, this Protective Order shall not apply to 13 any Confidential Information that: (a) is or becomes generally available to the public from a source 14 other than unauthorized disclosure by the Parties or their counsel; (b) becomes available to the 15 Parties or their counsel on a non-confidential basis from a source other than the Parties or their 16 counsel; or (c) is obtained outside discovery in these proceedings through lawful means. Nothing in 17 this Protective Order shall restrict the use of disclosure by a Party of information that it alone has 18 designated “Confidential.” Nothing in this Protective Order shall make any documents designated 19 as “Confidential” by a Party privileged, inadmissible as evidence, or precluded from production of 20 the “Confidential” documents in formal discovery, or otherwise alter the obligation of Parties to 21 comply with applicable discovery rules.

22 12. Nothing in this Protective Order shall be deemed to preclude any Party from obtaining,
23 on an appropriate showing, additional protection with respect to the confidentiality of any Information
24 produced in discovery in this action, or other modification of this Protective Order, including, without 25 limitation, that certain Confidential Information should be for the receiving Party’s attorney’s eyes 26 only. The entry of this Protective Order shall neither constitute, nor be used as a basis for, a finding 27 that any Party has waived any objections that it may have to the use, relevance, or admissibility of any 28 Information.

13. The production of any document or other information during discovery in this action, which absent such production would have been in whole or in part privileged under the attorney-client privilege, work-product privilege, or any other applicable privilege, will not release or waive the attorney-client privilege, work-product privilege, or other applicable privilege as to any documents and other information not produced, regardless of its subject matter.

14. This Protective Order shall remain in effect until modified, superseded, or terminated by written consent of all Parties to this action or by further order of the Court.

15. In the event that non-parties produce documents or information in connection with this action, the Parties agree that production of such documents or information shall be made subject to the provisions of this Protective Order.

16. In the event that a Party or non-party witness to which Confidential Information has been disclosed receives a discovery request, subpoena, order or other form of compulsory process requiring that it (the "Subpoenaed Party") produce information, documents, things or other materials that have been designated as Confidential Information, the Subpoenaed Party shall: (a) within ten (10) days notify the Designating Party of the demand by serving by facsimile or email upon counsel of record for the Designating Party a copy of said demand; and (b) not produce the information sought by the demand until the Designating Party has had thirty (30) days from the date of service of the copy of said demand to object or take other appropriate steps to protect the information. If the Designating Party elects to resist production of the materials, it shall promptly so notify the Subpoenaed Party and the latter shall cooperate in affording the Designating Party the opportunity to oppose or limit production of the materials; provided that the Designating Party shall bear all expenses, including attorney's fees, incurred by the Subpoenaed Party in connection therewith.

17. Execution of this Protective Order shall not prevent a Party from seeking, upon application to the Court on ten (10) business days' notice, to modify this Protective Order for good cause shown or from seeking such other relief upon good cause shown as may become appropriate or necessary.
